FAQ for international students

Q 1

When does the academic year start? Do I have to choose the years of study at the time of application?

Answer →

The academic year starts in April. You have to choose the years of study at the time of application, but you can change it later if you change your plan after enrolling.

Q 2

What kind of test is the Japanese writing test in the entrance exam?

Answer →

You will be asked to answer JLPT N2-level questions.

Q 3

Can I pay the tuition fees in installments?

Answer →

Yes. The fees to be paid at the time of enrollment can be paid in installments. However, you need to pay all of your tuition fees to have a letter of acceptance issued.

Q 4

Can I get a scholarship?

Answer →

For international students, ¥300,000 is deducted from the first-year tuition fees. There are also honors scholarships for students who excel in exams and congratulatory grants for those who obtain qualifications.

Q 5

What are class hours?

Answer →

In the first year, classes are held from 9:00 AM to 12:10 PM. In the second year, afternoon classes will also be held from 1:00 PM to 4:10 PM three times a week.

Q 6

Can I take the entrance exam in from where I live?

Answer →

If two or more applicants come from the same school, they can take the exam at their current school. You can look for friends to apply with. If you wish to take the exam at your school, please consult your teacher or our Secretariat.

Please contact the Secretariat
